

The Australian Carob Co.

Carob Powder

Next time you're cooking a chocolate cake, muffin or cookies try the healthier alternative with the Australian Carob Company's raw carob powder. The Australian Carob Company raw powder has been made using the finest carob pods and is the only product of its kind in Australia. The powder has been dried naturally without processed heat, giving it a pure taste that is both full-bodied and sweet. Contact The Australian Carob Company for more information.
